

HUB Charter School Practice Study Hall

---

February 2021

Hopefully, your staff and students are enjoying a newfound focus and being safe as many folks have returned to campus. We continue to focus our attention on providing COVID-19 resources for charter schools. We also want to provide a timely reminder to not lose focus on areas where critical dollars can be lost due to leaky risk management. Keep us in mind as your leadership teams adapt to evolving needs and risks.

COVID-19 & the Vaccine

We encourage charter schools to be cautious and diligent as they manage their process and messaging of the experimental COVID vaccine. Charter school leaders have employees that are desperate to get the vaccine as well as employees that refuse to get the vaccine. Speak to your peers, consult with legal counsel and take advantage of the resources below:
