

September 2019

By now most all schools have officially started! It is a great time to focus on the basic fundamentals that will help you achieve another successful school year. We ask that you think about some of the core risk management components that will help you and your staff - employee handbook language, compliance review, and emergency response policies are just a few of the areas where our team can help. Reach out to one of the HUB Charter Practice members today, or visit our new website here to find out more.

Zero to Sixty Video: Limit Your Professional Liability

The moment you position yourself as an expert, you assume new risks. Most of the time your professional advisement or services help customers. If it is perceived that you've fallen short of expectations or failed to deliver, however, you could find yourself facing a negligence claim. Click here to see this one-minute video.

Taking a Hit: Colorado School Districts Grapple with Insurance

Colorado School Districts are grappling with rising insurance premiums from hail claims, as Colorado is second in the nation for hail claim damage. Click here to read more.

Medicare Part D Notices Due Oct 15

Each year, Medicare Part D requires group health plan sponsors to disclose to individuals who are eligible for Medicare Part D and to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) whether the health plan's prescription drug coverage is creditable. Plan sponsors must provide the annual disclosure notice to Medicare-eligible individuals before Oct. 15, 2019—the start date of the annual enrollment period for Medicare Part D.
